
I call bullsh*t

Frank Kern <news@frankkernhelpdesk.com>

You know how they say you gotta "go big or go home"?

Or how "you gotta spend money to make money?"

SHENANIGANS.

When it comes to ads, you gotta START SMALL.

You gotta set everything up so you have as LOW OF A RISK AS POSSIBLE.

In fact, you need to basically do the OPPOSITE of what all the experts say.

HOW DO I KNOW?

Because I personally spend well over six figures a month of my OWN MONEY running ads.

And I run them personally.

And whenever I start a new campaign, I start SMALL.

Take the case study I show you in this class for example.

I started by spending a whopping $1.88 on the first day.

The next month, the campaign did over $400K in sales.

Start small. Low risk. Works better.

Let me show you how in this on-demand class.

It's free and there's nothing to sign up for ...but your access expires in four hours.

So go here and watch it, now.
